INTRODUCTION

This first-floor apartment is situated in a prime central position within the market town of Castle Douglas. The property is within walking distance of the picturesque Carlingwark Loch, Threave Gardens and National Trust walks, with the town centre amenities available straight from the front door.

This bright newly converted apartment occupies a building (listed) thought to date back to 1864 and has been converted from former office space. There is a Royal Bank of Scotland, at ground floor level, with a further five converted apartments set within the same building. The property is in walk-in condition, brightly decorated throughout and offers all features for modern day living, including a range of new floor and base units, newly fitted integrated kitchen appliances and modern sanitary ware. The property has gas fired central heating with the radiators having individual thermostatic controls, the system is operated via a wall mounted 'Worcester Greenstar' central heating boiler. The apartment benefits from a secure intercom entry (shared with three others) with a sweeping feature staircase leading to the main door of the property. The shared entry at ground floor level also benefits from large storage cupboards, which could be useful for storing bicycles, etc. A dedicated parking area is to the rear of the building. The property would be ideally suited for the first-time buyer or those seeking a buy to let.

Local services are within Castle Douglas (The Food Town), which forms the heart of the Stewartry area. Castle Douglas offers all essential services with a comprehensive range of leisure facilities, a modern health service, wide range of professional services as well as two national supermarkets. The high street is renowned for its niche retailing with a wide range of traditional shops and craft outlets. Primary & Secondary education is available within the town.

Communications to the area are good with the property lying in close proximity to the main A75 Euro Route, which provides quick access from the south via the M6 & M74. Cairnryan, the ferry link with Northern Ireland is a little over an hour's drive via the A75 and the international airports of Prestwick and Glasgow are about 58 miles and 72 miles respectively. There are mainline railway stations at both Dumfries and Lockerbie.

This area of Southwest Scotland enjoys one of the most varied and picturesque landscapes within Scotland, ranging from the moorland of the Southern Upland Hills to the bays and sandy beaches of the distinctive coastline. This is a rural county where agriculture and tourism thrive to form the backbone of the local economy. The area has been relatively unscathed by modern industry.

The region is well-known for the quality and variety of both field sports and leisure activities with the outdoor and sporting enthusiast extremely well-catered for as there exist the ability to take both shooting and fishing locally. Given the diverse landscape along with the proximity to the coast and local lochs, the area offers unique walks, sailing, cycling and for the golfer there is an abundance of good local courses with the region boasting no fewer than twenty-nine courses, the closest being within Castle Douglas.
