INTRODUCTION

Conrick Farm is situated about 2 miles north of the village of Sanquhar. During the current ownership Conrick Farm, has diversified to meet the demands of various sectors. A former dairy farm, benefitting from not only a traditional farmhouse with an attached one-bedroom apartment (Crawick View), but a modern five-bedroom secondary dwelling, along with modern and traditional farm steading. In addition, the farm operates a very successful poultry unit producing a mixture of organic and free-range.

Included in the current diversification projects is the start of a development with full planning permission for siting of eight Shepherds huts for holiday use. Two sites are awaiting accommodation onsite. The planning can be accessed through Dumfries & Galloway Council's planning department at: www.dumgal.gov.uk/planning using the reference: 18/1318/FUL.

The land is in a ring fence with about 158.39 acres of agricultural land and woodlands. The agricultural land is down to grass or forage crops for grazing and conservation (silage or hay), with the land also being capable of growing a wide range of cereal and other forage crops.

The nearest local services can be found within the village of Sanquhar, a small market town in the Nith Valley. Sanquhar's high street houses several shops and there are places to eat too. Sanquhar's main attraction is the Tolbooth Museum, a handsome Georgian town house in which the history of the village is revealed, from the mining history as well as the local weaving and hand-knitting industries. Also of interest is the town's post office which has been operating continuously since 1712, with a sign above the door proclaiming this the oldest post office in the world. A more extensive range of professional and retail services can be found either in Dumfries or Ayr.

Nearby, the Crawick Multiverse is a land art project, funded by the Duke of Buccleuch. The piece was designed by world famous landscape artist Charles Jenks, whose work can also be found in the grounds of the Scottish National Museum of Modern Art and Jupiter Artland in Edinburgh.

The Sanquhar Riding of the Marches is a much-anticipated event celebrated annually to commemorate the town's history and features equine parades, decorated floats and free entertainment.

This area of Southwest Scotland enjoys one of the most varied and picturesque landscapes within Scotland, ranging from the moorland of the Southern Upland Hills to the bays and sandy beaches of the distinctive coastline. This is a rural county where agriculture and tourism thrive to form the backbone of the local economy. The area has been relatively unscathed by modern industry.

The region is well-known for the quality and variety of both field sports and leisure activities with the outdoor and sporting enthusiast extremely well-catered for as there exists the ability to take both shooting and fishing locally. Given the diverse landscape along with the proximity to the coast and local lochs, the area offers unique walks, sailing, cycling and for the golfer there is an abundance of good local courses with the region boasting no fewer than twenty-nine courses.
