INTRODUCTION

Craigance is a charming residential small holding situated in a lovely rural setting, with no immediate neighbours, about 3 miles from the village of Barrhill.

Craigance provides the perfect opportunity for those seeking a rural lifestyle with the opportunity to have a degree of self-sufficient living. The property is approached by its own gated driveway providing ample parking and benefits from a spacious detached bungalow, grazing paddocks, box profile shed, animal shelters etc. with the whole property sitting in about 4.76 acres. Craigance incorporates a number of cost saving green features including solar power with an advantageous feed-in tariff, multi-fuel stoves supplementing the heating systems and a standalone solar plant for the steel portal outbuilding. All this combines to provide an easily managed economic holding.

Although delightfully rural the locality affords easy access to many of the attractions within the district which include: a variety of attractive hill and coastal walks and cycle trails (including the Barr trails), Loch Doon, the National Trusts Culzean Castle and Country Park; Galloway Forest Park which was awarded the prestigious designation as the first dark sky park in the UK and excellent golf courses at Girvan and Turnberry. There are of course the usual field sports, rivers for fishing and some delightful lochs within close proximity.

The principal town serving the immediate district is Girvan and here can be found secondary school, general hospital, a variety of shops both independent and multiple retailers, ASDA supermarket and an attractive seafront with promenade and working harbour with moorings for pleasure craft and a leisure centre, The Quay Zone, comprising state of the art gym, swimming pool and soft play area. Girvan, about 8 miles, has a train station which provides connections north to Ayr, Prestwick Airport and Glasgow and south to Stranraer. Barrhill has a primary school as well as a community village store, bowling green, enhanced children's play park and medical centre. Various societies operate from the village community centre and events are held from time to time

This area of Southwest Scotland enjoys one of the most varied and picturesque landscapes within Scotland, ranging from the moorland of the Southern Upland Hills to the bays and sandy beaches of the distinctive coastline. This is a rural county where agriculture and tourism thrive to form the backbone of the local economy. The area has been relatively unscathed by modern industry.

The region is well-known for the quality and variety of both field sports and leisure activities with the outdoor and sporting enthusiast extremely well-catered for as there exist the ability to take both shooting and fishing locally. Given the diverse landscape along with the proximity to the coast and local lochs, the area offers unique walks, sailing, cycling and for the golfer there is an abundance of good local courses.
