INTRODUCTION

Barharrow Farm is situated not far from the pretty village of Gatehouse of Fleet. Barharrow Farm is an exceptional dairy farm, benefitting from a well-presented traditional farmhouse, two farm cottages, mainly modern farm buildings, 16/32 Herringbone parlour and about 611 acres of agricultural land. The agricultural land is down to grass for grazing and conservation (silage or hay), however the land is capable of growing a range of cereal and other forage crops. For the avoidance of doubt, Barharrow is farmed in conjunction with two other properties which are both being offered for sale at this time by Threave Rural and particulars are available (Clauchan Farm & Land at Plunton), both which lie contiguous to Barharrow.

The farmhouse at Barharrow has been well-maintained offering comfortable four-bedroom accommodation over two floors. The property occupies a position within its own garden grounds and is accessed by a separate driveway.

The farm benefits from three other residential properties, one being the Dairy House, contained within the steading at Barharrow, and two detached cottages, Jessieville & Dromore. The farm cottages are located outwith the main farm and currently offer accommodation to farm staff.

The steading is of mainly modern construction and houses the dairy complex. The farm until very recently was in production and all associated dairy equipment was in daily use.

A range of local services are conveniently located within the historical village of Gatehouse, where there are a range of shops and a grocery store and with a variety of places to eat out. Gatehouse is also a recognised UNESCO Biosphere community. Biosphere Communities are places where local residents and businesses have committed to being proud supporters of the Biosphere.

The village attracts a wide range of artists and makers, with the artist town of Kirkcudbright, a 10-minute drive from the property. Kirkcudbright is extremely popular with tourists and is known as the 'Artist's Town' as well as craft shops and niche retailers the town is well served with a full range of retail and professional services. Primary schooling is available in Gatehouse of Fleet and secondary schooling available within Kirkcudbright. A further range of services can be found in Castle Douglas (The Food Town), with the high street being renowned for its niche retailing with a wide range of traditional shops and craft outlets.

Communications to the area are good with the property lying in close proximity to the main A75 Euro Route, which provides quick access from the south via the M6 & M74. Cairnryan, the ferry link with Northern Ireland is a little over an hour's drive via the A75. The international airports of Glasgow & Edinburgh are within a one-and-a-half-hour drive. There are mainline railway stations at both Dumfries and Lockerbie.

This area of Southwest Scotland enjoys one of the most varied and picturesque landscapes within Scotland, ranging from the moorland of the Southern Upland Hills to the bays and sandy beaches of the distinctive coastline. This is a rural county where agriculture and tourism thrive to form the backbone of the local economy. The area has been relatively unscathed by modern industry.

The region is well-known for the quality and variety of both field sports and leisure activities with the outdoor and sporting enthusiast extremely well-catered for as there exist the ability to take both shooting and fishing locally. Given the diverse landscape along with the proximity to the coast and local lochs, the area offers unique walks, sailing, cycling and for the golfer there is an abundance of good local courses with the region boasting no fewer than twenty-nine courses, the closest being at Gatehouse.
