LAND AT MULDADDIE

INTRODUCTION

The land at Muldaddie is situated on the periphery of the harbour village of Port Logan, Stranraer in the county of Dumfries & Galloway. This area of Southwest Scotland is a distinctly rural area, which has been unspoilt by modern industry and where agriculture and tourism form the backbone of the local economy.

The area is noted for its fertile and productive grassland. The land lies in the climatically favoured southwest corner of Scotland which is known for its mild climate and long growing season with the whole area benefiting from the mild gulf stream. This has contributed to the area being one of the most productive livestock, cropping and dairying areas in the United Kingdom.

The land is within easy reach of Stranraer, which provide all essential services with the ferry port at Cairnryan a short drive from the land at Muldaddie.
