INTRODUCTION

Kilfillan Croft and Old Station Cottage are charming properties set in an idyllic rural location just outside the village of Garlieston. Formerly the old railway station, these adjoining homes now comprise a private residence and a successful holiday cottage, complemented by grazing land and an agricultural building with a yard.

Both cottages are of traditional brick and slate construction, arranged on a single level. Kilfillan Croft offers three spacious bedrooms, a bright lounge with superb countryside views, a well-appointed kitchen and a practical utility room. Old Station Cottage, currently operated as a holiday let, features two bedrooms, a comfortable living room and a kitchen/dining area. Full floor plans and accommodation details are available within these particulars.

Occupying an elevated position, the properties enjoy generous gardens and far-reaching views across open countryside and rolling hills. As a former train station, the site offers a unique opportunity to acquire a historic and versatile property in one of the most picturesque parts of Scotland.

Accessed via private driveways, both homes provide ample parking, with Kilfillan Croft also benefiting from a convenient turning circle. The beautifully landscaped grounds feature sweeping lawns, mature trees, vegetable beds, grazing land and agricultural building, perfect for those seeking a peaceful rural lifestyle with business potential. The property benefits from a frequent daytime bus service, with a pickup point conveniently located at the end of the road.

Garlieston is a charming coastal village on the Solway Coast of the Machars Peninsula, nestled between Wigtown and the Isle of Whithorn. This picturesque and peaceful harbour town offers a welcoming community with a primary school, village pub, café, and shop.

Further amenities can be found in Whithorn (4 miles), which offers a range of shops, cafés, a pharmacy, primary school, veterinary clinic, doctors' surgery and a garage. Nearby Wigtown, Scotland's National Book Town, is around 8 miles away and is home to the renowned annual Wigtown Book Festival. A wider selection of services is available in Newton Stewart (15 miles), including supermarkets, shops, professional services, a leisure centre and a secondary school.

This part of southwest Scotland is a haven for outdoor enthusiasts, offering scenic cycle routes through the Machars, beautiful coastal and countryside walks, fishing, golf, and the chance to enjoy the region's exceptional birdlife. With numerous sandy beaches and secluded coves nearby, it's perfect for family outings or peaceful coastal escapes.

Communications to the area are much improved with the A75 trunk road providing quick access from the South via the M6 & M74. Ferry services to Northern Ireland operate from Cairnryan (36 miles approx.), while Glasgow International Airport lies around 98 miles from the property. The mainline railway station at Stranraer offers regular services to Ayr, Troon, Kilmarnock, Prestwick Airport and Glasgow.

METHOD OF SALE

The property is offered for sale by Private Treaty.

OUTSIDE

The plot extends to approximately 10 acres in total. As mentioned earlier, both cottages benefit from their own private driveways, providing ample parking. The garden grounds are predominantly laid to lawn, interspersed with mature trees, shrubs, and established vegetable beds. Kilfillan Croft features a closed-up well, with pipework and electrics but would need recommissioned, within the garden and attractive stone pillars flanking the entrance to the turning circle, while Old Station House has its own private gardens, featuring a lawn area, shrubs, and a gravel area with solar panels at the front of the house. The solar panels provide an average annual feed-in payment of around £2,000.

To the front of the properties lies a grazing field, while to the rear features the remains of the old railway track. Beyond this, there is a large box profile agricultural shed (75ft x 40ft) with a concrete floor, electricity and water. This is currently used for storing large machinery, together with a yard. A separate driveway provides access to the agricultural building and yard.

Wind Turbine

The wind turbine situated on the grounds is subject to a lease for Aurawind, complete with a deed of servitude entered into on 5th March 2015 for a period of 25 years, along with the necessary rights of servitude access.

HOME REPORT

As this is a mixed sale, the cottages are home report exempt.

MATTERS OF TITLE

The subjects are sold under the conditions in the title and any existing burdens (rights of way, rights of access, servitudes etc whether public or private, and whether constituted in the title deeds or not). The purchaser(s) will be held to have satisfied themselves as to the nature of such burdens and are advised to contact the vendors' solicitor, A B & A Matthews, for a definitive list of burdens subject to which the property is sold.

APPORTIONMENT

The Council Tax and any other outgoings shall be apportioned between the vendor and the purchaser at the date of entry.

INGOING

There are no ingoing claims affecting the property.

WARRANTY CLAUSE

Whilst the central heating system and the services are believed to be in good working order, no warranty is granted or to be implied and the purchaser(s) will be held to have satisfied themselves in that regard.

ENTRY & VACANT POSSESSION

At a date to be mutually agreed.

OFFERS (Closing Date)

Offers must be submitted in proper Scottish legal terms to Threave Rural, No' 3 Ring, New Market Street, Castle Douglas, DG7 1HY. A closing date for offers may be fixed and prospective purchaser(s) are advised to register their interest with the sole selling agents following inspection. The vendors do however reserve the right to sell the property without fixing a closing date or prior to the closing date. For those unfamiliar with the Scottish system the sole selling agents will be pleased to offer guidance and explain the procedure. Please note that under the 2017 AML regulations we are legally required to carry out money laundering checks against purchasers. Upon verbal acceptance of an offer, we require to identify the purchaser for Anti-Money Laundering purposes. We are not able to enter a business relationship with a purchaser until they have been identified.

GENERALLY

Should there be any discrepancy between these particulars, the general remarks and information and the missives of sale, the latter shall prevail.
